

The Book of Ruth, Part 4

A Story of God's Love

INTRODUCTION

- Ruth is really the story of God's _____, his loving kindness, mercy, compassion, love and faithfulness.
- Ruth provides a preview of the fulfillment of God's love for us in C_____ J_____

PREPARING

- Why was it important for Ruth to marry Boaz? _____
- What is the significance of Ruth washing, anointing and dressing to meet Boaz? (reference Ezekiel 16:8-11) _____
- In Christ Jesus we are washed, we are san_____ by His _____ and our sin stained garments are made anew by his grace. We are dressed in his robe of rig_____.

SUBMITTING

- How does Ruth submit to Boaz? _____
- What does it mean to spread your wings over another? (see Ezekiel 16:8; Ephesians 5:25-27) _____

RECEIVING

- Why does the LORD say again and again, "Fear not?" _____
- What does Psalm 27:1 say? _____

TRUSTING

- We should be encouraged to w_____ and t_____ in the work of the Lord.
- Look up Philippians 1:6 and Romans 8:28

WHAT ABOUT YOU?

1. Come to the Lord, be washed, anointed and covered in his robes of righteousness.
2. Submit to His will in humbleness
3. Be reassured by His promises.
4. Trust in Jesus' grace and timing.

