

Promises of Purity, Justice & Salvation

INTRODUCTION

- What was the situation like during Malachi's time? _____

A COVENENTAL PROMISE

- How did John-the-Baptist prepare the way? _____
- Historically, the season of Ad _____ is a season of rep _____
- H _____ and re _____ puts us on our knees in prayer before the Lord where we seek his forgiveness.
- The messenger of the covenant is called L _____. The te _____ belongs to Him. _____ is the covenant of the Good News. And we de _____ in Him and His message.

THE PROMISE OF PURITY

- What does God use the metaphor of Fuller's Soap? _____
- Jesus comes to _____ those who _____ do it themselves
- What is a Refiner's F _____e?
- The LORD's fire does n _____ burn indiscriminately.
- When Jesus _____ you, what will be reflected to others is not your image, but the very image of Christ Jesus.

THE PROMISE OF JUSTICE

- The world says that God will not judge anyone. Is that biblically true? _____
- The LORD God will bring j _____ to an unjust world. His justice is always against _____.
- What is the wellspring of all injustice and sin? _____
- "Holy, Holy, Holy is the LORD God Almighty" are not hollow words. They are hal _____ words. They speak to the utmost p _____, the utmost righ _____ and the utmost ju _____ of the LORD.

THE PROMISE OF SALVATION

- Why are the words, "For I the LORD do not change" such sweet words?

-
- In Advent, the promise of salvation is for _____, fulfilled and made com _____ in Christ Jesus.

HEAR THE WORD, APPLY THE WORD; GROW IN JESUS

1. What areas of pride need to be leveled by humility and repentance?
2. How has God been testing you, refining you, purifying you?
3. Read the first two chapters of Luke and recall the promise of salvation from our unchanging God

