

Repentance and Forgiveness Proclaimed

INTRODUCTION

- We are a people of Jesus' r_____. It is fundamental to our faith.

REASSURES THEM OF THE RESURRECTION

- The p_____ that Jesus bestows on us is a proclamation and a pr_____. It is a gift given by Jesus to his disciples, and is also conferred to all believers.
- The g_____ is the good news of peace and reco_____ with God.

REMINDS THEM OF GOD'S PROMISES

- Jesus first brings to re_____ what he has already said. By saying that he had already spoken of these things, he places emphasis that this is n____ a new revelation.
- Christianity is not an acci_____ faith. It has is based on the p____n that God has laid down from the beginning
- He brings to remembrance the writing of the O____ T_____. What are some of the books he would have referred to? _____
- Jesus shows them that he is fou____ thr_____ the Old Testament.

REASON FOR THE CROSS AND RESURRECTION

- EVE_____ that was written about him in the Old Testament points to the cross and resurrection! Thus, it m_____ have been done as it was done.
- What Psalm point to the cross? _____ What chapter from Isaiah? _____
- The cross and the resurrection must happen so that so that re_____ and forg_____ of sin can be proclaimed in Jesus' name.
- What's difference between regret and remorse? _____
- All other religions say, "work and g_____ forgiveness." Christianity is the only one that says, "Repent and re_____ forgiveness."
- Our whole faith and life is built on the c_____ and re_____; on the present and et_____ reality of repentance and forgiveness of sin through Christ Jesus.

HEAR THE WORD, APPLY THE WORD; GROW IN JESUS

- Is the cross and resurrection a present reality in your faith and life?
- Is there any sin that you need to confess?
- Do you believe that if you confess your sin, you are truly forgiven?
- Who in your life needs to hear the message of forgiveness through Jesus?

