

Our Lord Who Forgives

INTRODUCTION

- To have a living faith is to live in accordance with the character and nature of God who fo_____.

GOD COMES DOWN TO US

- In some ways, the co_____ between God and the Israelites is very much like a w_____ vow.
- What makes worshipping a golden calf so bad? _____
- The g_____ n_____ that even though the Israelites had disobeyed, God was willing to be r_____ his covenant.
- He is a great God, and no matter how high we reach, he still has to s_____. P.G. Ryken

AND BECAUSE OF HIS NATURE FORGIVES OUR SIN

- To say the n_____ of God is to speak of his w_____ nature.
- The nature of God is M_____, Gr_____, Slow to A_____
- Abounding in St_____ L_____ : The loy_____ or faithfulness within a relationship. God's loving-kindness is that sure love which will n_____ let you go.
- Because of His nature, he _____
- True forgiveness is the basis for re_____ relationships. Without true forgiveness, all relationships remain in some state of b_____
- If you want a _____ of forgiveness, you need the heart of C_____.

YET THERE ARE CONSEQUENCES FOR UNREPENTANT SIN

- For those who continue to _____ in their sin without re_____ there is cond_____ and consequences for their sin. John 3:18, 36
- The sins of the fa_____ can and do echo down through the gen_____.

THUS WE PLEAD FOR GOD TO BE IN OUR MIDST

- How did God fulfill Moses' plea for Him to be in our midst? _____
- And the W_____ became flesh and dw_____ among us. John 1:14, also Matthew 1:18-23

HEAR THE WORD, APPLY THE WORD; GROW IN JESUS

- Meditate on this: To have a living faith is to live in accordance with the character and nature of God who forgives.
- How has God in Christ Jesus forgiven you?
- Pray for Jesus to work on your heart, one that forgives has He forgives.

