

A Living Faith!

INTRODUCTION

- If you have to do these things (balloons, zip lines, rock walls, etc.) to make _____ exciting, you don't understand the re_____.

FROM DEATH TO LIFE

- A faith with no _____ is a dead faith.
- The form without the sub_____ makes for a dead ch_____ and a dead f_____
- What were the facts the women faced?
 - 1) The _____ had been rolled away.
 - 2) The _____ was empty.
 - 3) Jesus had truly _____.
 - 4) An _____ appeared to them.
- From d_____ to l_____ is a main message of His resurrection. See 1 Cor 15:20-21

TO A LIVING FAITH

- As human beings, our condition is that we fo_____. But God never forgets. And He helps us re_____ what is important.
- When God talks about remembering, it is to bring the events of the past into the pr_____. Exodus 13:3; 32:13 Luke 9:22; 24:46-48 Matthew 12:40, John 2:19
- In one moment, the women went from having a dead faith to a living faith! From a faith of the _____ to a faith of the pr_____.

THAT WITNESSES

- With all of the strikes against them, why did the women not stop themselves from witnessing?_____
- There were so overcome with the re_____ of what happened that they needed to t_____ . That's what a living faith does.

HEAR THE WORD, APPLY THE WORD; GROW IN JESUS

1. Read all of the gospel accounts of the resurrection. What are the facts that you find?
2. Remember in the present tense the promises of Jesus and His resurrection.
3. Pray for doors to open that you, too, may be a witness of Jesus and His gospel.

