

Jesus, Light of the World

INTRODUCTION

- When Christ Jesus is your _____ and _____, others will see _____ light in you and you will bring His light to others.

I AM THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

- The Festival of Tabernacles (Booths) was a time of remembrance _____ God's provision _____ and faithfulness when Israel went through the desert.
- The lighted Temple at night reminded the people of the pillar _____ of fire _____ that had guided Israel in their wilderness journey.
- The festival was a reminder that God had promised to send the Messiah _____, to be the light to a _____-darkened world
- Jesus made messianic declaration: What God foretold _____ of the coming messiah has been fulfilled _____ in him. Isaiah 9:1 42:6; 49:6; 60:3
- I am the LORD; I have called you in righteousness; I will take you by the hand and keep you; I will give you as a covenant _____ for the people, a light _____ for the nations Isaiah 42:6
- Jesus is the source _____ of light for the deepest, darkest sin-stained parts of the world
- Where there is the light of Christ Jesus, there is hope _____
- at _____ and how people perceive you. (Matthew 5:16)
- As for _____ of Jesus, our lives should be exemplary.
- The good Lord can use you and your light of faith to the very end. There is no _____ regression _____ age when it comes to faith in God, in Christ Jesus as Lord and Savior.

FOLLOW JESUS THE LIGHT

- Like the pillar in the desert, Jesus as the light of the world must be followed _____" Lenski
- To follow Jesus means that you are _____ by Jesus. Give some examples of what that means _____
- _____
- You can't walk in the darkness _____ and expect the joy of Christ. In the surrender to Christ, there is freedom _____ and joy _____

HEAR & APPLY THE WORD

- How is Jesus the Light of the World?
- Is Jesus THE light of your life?
- In what ways are you following Jesus?

