Here is a beautiful letter I received today. Amazing people trying to be destroyed by the fake news media.

Hi Kris,
Thank you so much for giving us the opportunity to reply to the recent misunderstandings about our ministry and tarot card. My name is Jenny, the one who several websites have attacked and named us as with Bethel. The reason they said that because we are the proud parents of Ben Fitzgerald, who is part of the Bethel family. Our ministry Christalignment is a large undercover prophetic evangelism deliverance ministry based in Australia. Our aim is to get people saved, healed, and set free. Over the last 6 years we have developed a very successful tested method for ministering to thousands of new age people. The team see approx 7,000 people per year going into all Australian new age festivals, Expos and events.

The cards we use are our own and are not tarot nor remotely similar to tarot. We know tarot cards are very dangerous and highly discourage it. The tools we made help us lead people into a deep God encounter at our tables, and our aim at Christalignment is to attract tarot reading clients, people who are fully into new age practices, psychics and witches. All of these people can immediately recognise that our cards are not tarot once they sit down at our tables.

Card sets, including things we made named "Psalm cards" with scriptures on them, address the gifting in a person's life, the colour God is showing the person in a prayer encounter will speak to the person through the prophetic image on the front or meaning on the back. It's the same as when we give someone a prophetic painting, just much smaller. They are all non-predictive but we call them destiny cards as we believe that giftings and callings given by God for people are certainly part of their destiny. All cards contain beautiful paintings by 4 different world-renowned prophetic artists and these paintings alone have deep meanings which have led to salvation and healing for many clients.

The team are trained not only to be able to release deep encounters with the Spirit of Truth to clients but to also release words of knowledge and healing. For clients to see Jesus standing before them in an encounter is not uncommon, and many of them get born again.

The prophetic word given over us 4 years ago was that we would see hundreds of witches come into the kingdom, thousands of people turn from darkness and that tarot cards would be disabled. Praise God this is happening!! As a deliverance ministry we are able to stop clients ever going to a psychic again and this is our aim. Thank you so much for all you do for the body of Christ Kris
God bless
Ken and Jenny Hodge
